INSURE

Lives there a man with soul so dead.

Who dies and leaves his family poor.

And then my loved ones need not fear

They'll have far more than I can save

But what, when I am in my grave,

And an old age, serene and bright

And wish to find out just how much

Write, phone, or call on us or me.

HONGKONG, JANUARY 20TH, 1896.

THE past week has witnessed interesting coromonies in connection with two inportant native institutions in our midst, namely, the opening of the building erected for the acommodation of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and the laying of the foundation stone of the Po Lenng Kuk's new home for rescued women and girls. very marked contrast was exhibited by the two events. At the opening of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce the ceremonial was purely native, Chinese officials were imported to play the leading parts, the Hongkong Chinese who assisted donned official robes for the occasion, and the form of propitinting the fengshui of the site was gone through. The Governor recently expressed his regret that after fifty years of British rule the Chinese community of this colony should remain so little Anglicised. If any -proof were required to show that there was ground for His Excellency's regret it may be that his Excellency has recovered from his illfound in the proceedings of Friday last. The | ness. Chinese are of course free to practise their religious observances, and if they wished to have a religious ceremonial in connection. with the opening of their Chamber of Commerce no formal objection can be raised, but it is truly lamentable to find the native mercantile community openly boying to the fengshui superstition, one of the chief barriers to progress in the neighbouring empire. Moreover, if superstitious native ceremonials can be dispensed with in the dedication of such institutions round of the Football Cup competition took as the Tung Wah Hospital and the Po Leung Kuk we cannot think that their adoption in the case of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce was due so much to intensity of religious feeling which in fact does not exist in the Chinese mind as to a desire to insult the established order of the colour Why was not the Governor invited to per- the Japanese Government from the U.S. form the opening ceremony instead of a native official, or, if the promoters wished to invest and Commander F. Dr. Ho Kai. As I said low. I have had a great deal of pleasure aying the foundation stone of this new build ing, because, in doing so, I feel I was not only riving pleasure to myself but I was doing duty which would be expected of me by Majesty the Queen, whom I have the honour to serve. All Governors of colonies are expected take a leading part in supporting any institu ion which has for its object the advancement of the moral and social condition of the people whom they govern and therefore it given me very great pleasure not only of my own account, but borause I have done a dut which Her Majesty the Queen has most gra ciously devolved upon me. (Appleuse.) I wis the Society every success in the future, and thank you for the manner in which you proposed the tosst of my health. (Applause.) While his Excellency was speaking another photograph was taken, and at the penclusion J. FRANCIS said-Your Excellency ladies and gentlemen. I have been asked to propose the only other toast that is to be proposed his afternoon, and that is, prosperity to the institution the foundation stone of which so to say, at the birth of the Po Leunz Kul Society. You have heard from His Excel ency the Governor, in the address which delivered at the laying of the foundation stone. under what circumstances the Chinese resi dent in the colony proposed to establish institution. When their proposals first ame before His Excellency the then Governor her were referred to a number of gentlemen of whom I happened to be one, being ut the time Acting Police Magistrate, for consideration and report. I know I was very pleased an gratified at the time by the efforts then put orward by the Chinese gentlemen who we then organising the affair, and I had very great pleasure indeed in strongly recom mending it to the Governor, and in preparing rules for the management of the institution You have heard, from his Excellency what has been done during the seventeen years since the nstitution was started by the members of how many women they have rescued from destitation and misery: how many they have re stored to their own homes; and it is on to the Po Leunz Kuk Society to say that hat work was done under many disadvantages. You have beard from this Excellency, the Governor that the room placed at their disposal of the Roman Catholic section of the foreign Chief Justice to the evil practice of kidnapping in the Tung Wa Hospital was hardly suitable extensively, in the first instance, supplied with raised amongst the Catholic members of the mere chattels. The principal Chinese residents funds but through the seal and energy of the members of the Committee, they were able to dos considerable amount of very valuable work; indeed t is difficult to say what is the real amoun resome work that has been accomplished It is, therefore, with very great pleasure in deed that I propose the future prosperit this it will be the fault of the members them. solves, because now they have a most handsome endowment and a fine building, and have been incorporated to the fullost extent by her Ma esty's Government. They have been placed under the superintendence of the Registrar-General, not absolutely for the purpose of controlling the institution, but simply for the purpose of consulting the Committee and meeting any di floulties that may arise. At the same time any one thinking over the subject must say that the greatest prosperity which can happen to the Po Leung Kuk Society is that it may come to an honourable end by the entire constition of idnapping, by the cassation of those miseries which it gives rise to, and that the institution should become no longer a necessity, but I am very much afraid that that end can never be completely attained. Therefore I sincerely wish and I dek you to join with mo in wishing that this institution from this day forward may be even more carefully and thore zealously managed than it has been in the past that is may make most perfect and most efficient use of the means now placed at its disposal,

The toust was responded to by Mr. Leung Pui Chi, who said -vour Excellency, Mr. Francis. adies and gontlemen on behalf of the Po Leang Kuk I thank you very much for the kind manner in which you lings just received the toust. URICKET.

HONGKONG C. D. W. THE GARRISON

The return match between the Cricket Club and the Garrison was played on Friday and Saturday and resulted in a complete victory or the soldiers in one innings and 138 runs. As regards the cricket, to use the term in it enoral series, one might call it the most lamentable performance that has been witnessed on the round for many years. Granted that the Club were uttorly defeated in their first lunings by of Peking :the grand bowling of Vallings and Green, is i any reason that such alackness should have been shewn throughout the whole match by certain members of the Club eleven?. It is all the more to be regretted that it is in the younger players that the slackness is particularly noticeable stiffness and slowness may be pardoned in man who is nearer forty than twenty, but when comes to young fellows of twenty or so being lazy and slow on the Held there can hardly be any expression too strong to be used ondemnation. On Friday afternoon, when smart fielding might have done a lot at the beginning of the Garrison innings, on several consions the ball was seen to trickle slowly tovards a fielder and instead of trying to save the un he esimiy waited till the ball had reached him, by which time of course a run had been sored when there should have been none Then again on Saturday morning there was still an off chance of saving the match. (a remote one certainly, but still in they could to evert defeat. No such thing three or four were present soon after II s.m. but the rest came about 11.45. After lunch the same thing happened: The usual time for turning out is 1.40 p.m., but two o'clock had struck before It might nothere been possible to save the match but still, why not play the game properly Surely such players must know that they ar merely holding themselves up to the derision o all keen cricketers. Many old hands and keen supporters of the game left the ground varing that they were thoroughly disgusted with the whole thing. There is always an xcuse for missing a catch or making a 0. there can be no excuse for slackness. A per sonal experience of the writer's may perhaps be somewhat to the point here :- Many year ago he was playing in a match in England and being only a boy of about thirteen thought i rame. Unknown to him his father was watch ng the match. Suffice it to say that on return ing home the young cricketer had an interriow with his father at which a dog whip played not unimportant part. That lad has now grown into a man and has never again given cause for the word "elsek" to be used against im in the cricket field. It is not intended to uggest corporal punishment in this instance, but still it is to be hoped that many may take these matters to heart and not in future lay themselves open to the scorn of every true lover of the game. The club were unlocky in not having the sorvices of that good all round cricketer Berombe-Smith, but stern duty kept him away ngs commenced the attack for the Garrison s first ball, a clinker, just dislodging Lowson's same over. Green bowled at the other end and speedily became apparent that no one could ouch either of these bowlers. The analysis will show the excellence of the bowling and here is no need to say any more about it here. The club were all out for 49. The soldiers commenced their innings ending in Campbell and Percival, who were presed to the bowling of Lowson and Firth fter Percival had put Lowson's first ball away. to leg very prettily, both batemen played with rest caution for some time, runs coming very runs come very slowly at first, both men playing very steady game. RUSSIA'S NAVY WEAK... London, 14th December, Telegrams from Odessa reporting the enlargenent of the Russian Black Sea fleet and the make ng of it readyfor any contingency of war, lend an nterest to an interview that is published here with an English enginee who has long soon supervising Russian war ships in the Black Sea. When asked why Russia was obliged employ a large number of English engineers. ne said that the Russians do not know their vork. They spoil weak machinery, are unable o make repairs and allow the steering and ther goar to rust. He added that "If the Russian navy had really to fight, would go to pieces, the engineers not understanding the machinery of which they have charge: The Black Sea freel in rotting for want of paint. The officers steal the money that is supposed to be expended for paint and the bottoms of the shins are badly corroded The water of the Black see has a peculiar cor roding action on copper. The vessels ought to be painted periodically, but as a matter of fact they are soldon so treated. It takes four years to fit out a Russian ship after she is delivered the Russians are so slow and such thieves, and it is nobody's interest to harry. The Black sea fleet is formidable only on paper and it is not fit to go mywhere.

RAISING REVENUE IN FRANCE. New York, 15th December. The Sun's Paris cable says . There is little France which escapes being taxed for public There has been a tax of 13 cents a pack on playing cards for several years, and a bill is now before the Chamber of Deputies which will probably increase this to 25 cents. It is ornected thus tondd $200,000 to the national revenue The use of playing cards in France has been much restricted already by the high tax, and it is probable that this great increase will so reduce the demand that the promotors of the now law will be disappointed in the amount violded. A tax of 6 cents per pack in England materially restricts the use of cards in that The most unhappy effect in France probably will be that the cards used publicly in clubs and cafes will become filthier than ever. EMPEROR WILLIAM AT KIEL.

Kiel. 15th December Emperor William arrived to-day and paid isit to the deckyards and to the Sesman's Home. At the latter place he made an address and administered the outh to the naval recruits. He exhorted them to remain good Christians and to be loval to their Emperor and father and and to keep the outh sacred which bound them to submit to one will in order to preserve what their forefathers created. He referred to the victories of 1870, and said he trusted the recruits were ready to perform similar feats. THE THRONE OF BAVARIA.

Washington.: 16th December_ The Senate was in session about two hours today, half of that time being given to Stewart of Nevada in a vigorous assault on the gold "combine." In one respect the Senster presented a new phase of the subject with which his name has been so closely identified in Sinate speeches. He urged that the great depreciation of silver gave to the cheap labour f Asia a tremendous advantage in competing with the domestic products of the American market. Japan in particular, he said, was profiting by this difference of 50 per cent. between our money and that of Japan, and Japanese ... merchants were to-day underselling one home producers in many lines of goods. During Mr. Stewart's speech Mr. Matsu, secretary of the Japanese Legation, was an attentive listener in the diplomatic gallery.

We declars it incontrovertible that no more bitter, more perfidious or more unrelenting enemy than Great Britain to the United States has ever existed. England has ever been the vengeful foe of American liberty and republican institutions. Imbued with this conviction, and seeing that Great Britain has avowed her intention to trample upon the Mouros dostrine by her attempt to rob Venezuela of her territory. and has dared to violate the integrity of our territory in Alaska, we hereby offer as a proof of our loyalty and devotion to the country of which we are citizens to place at the disposal of the President of the United States 100,000 soldiers as brave as have ever shouldered a rifle and every man of whom is a believer in the principles and teachings of the Irish National

Our army, which is now organised, is ready to serve the American republic in any part of the continent, and should the enforcement of of the Monroe doctrine need its aid will, either on Irish soil or English ground, establish the fact that the intrepidity, the valor and determination of the Irish brigade will again prove the loyalty of Irishmen to the United States. Whatever the nation that dares to interfere with American principles of liberty, be it England or any other foreign power, we care not the men whose faith is that of the Irish National Alliance stand ready to fight at any moment for the honour and for the rights of the country of our adoption. This is the loyalty our men bear to the United States. We have proven it on many a hard-fought field, whather the enemies of the republic were Englishmen, Tories or rebels.

As to our relations with England, we have no apologies to make, no excuse to offer. Should it be possible to embroil her with any power of the earth, we shall not hesitate to do . so. The chief object of the Irish National Alliance is to create the opportunity which will enable us to drive the British enemy from Ireland as it was driven from the United States, England's cruelty, oppression and usurpation of the rights of American citizens hastened her utter defeat in America.

We pray that the day may soon come when we, the exiles of our own land, shall assist in driving the foe to whom we bear unending hatred from our island.

ALLEGED AMERICAN TREATY WITH RUSSIA New York, 20th December.

Washington, D. C., dispatch to the Tribune says that a report is current, particularly among officers of the military and naval, services that there are in the State Department confidential documents which are in the nature of a secret treaty with Russia, under the terms of which the Czar's Government pledges itself to afford all possible assistance to the United States in case this country becomes involved in a war with Great Britain. So far as is known, persons outside the State Department have never had an opportunity to persue this important document. There seems to be little doubt of its existence, however, in some form.

According to a report quietly circulated to day, Minister Breckinridge has recently inquired of the St. Petersburg authorities they regarded the compact to be still in force. and has received an affirmative reply. It is further said that Brocking dgo has communicated information to this effect to Secretary Olney. Navy claim to have positive intelligence of the existence of an agreement between Russia and the United States, and attach great importance to the alliance. They may that in the event of war the flower of the Czar's navy would be sent to American waters, and that the Bussians would be delighted to combine their fleet with that of this country in a conflict with

The officers contend that the confidential compact was made during the War of the Rebellion and there is evidence on file in the State. Department showing that the agreement has been renewed on several occasions since through this country's diplomatic representatives at St. Petersburg. With Russia's best ships added to those of this country in service and undergoing completion, and taking into account the fact that Great Britain must maintain a strong squadron in the Mediterranean and Chinese waters, naval officers are of the opinion that the allied fleet would prove an antagonist not to be despised, even by so formidable a maritime power as England
